STUDENT COUNCILMEN FAVOR $4 TAX PLAN

Many Want Compulsory $1 Hatchet Fee.

$5 TAX NECESSARY IF VOLUNTARY

Councilmen Wish to Aid Publications—Also Offer Suggestions for School Spirit—Require $5 If Tax is Voluntary

Statements from members of next year's Council obtained by the Hatchet show that a large majority favor a tax next year, and that many want a compulsory Hatchet.

Since these statements were obtained an estimate based on present prices has shown that a $5 tax will be necessary if the tax is to be voluntary. Arguments for a $4 compulsory tax have also been advanced.

The statements of the councilmen elect follow:

Rhesa Miles Norris, Law, President of Student Council 1916-17—I would like to see the Hatchet made compulsory, as it disseminates the news thru all departments and stirs up interest. The $4 tax meets with my approval also. If conditions are such in the fall that college athletics cannot be renewed I suggest departmental athletics.

William S. Hance, Engineering, President of Student Council 1917-18—I am for the $4 student tax to cover medical aid and student publications. Interdepartmental sports could be substituted for general college athletics.

Elmer Kayser, Teachers—I am not in favor of a $4 tax as it necessitates too much clerical work. The Hatchet should be compulsory.

John Lyons, Medical—I am in favor of a compulsory student tax to cover publications and medical aid.

Martha McGrew, Columbian—There ought to be a $4 tax. Without athletics we should do our best to boost all other activities thru the university publications.

Alvin Biggs, Engineering—Class smokers and an upper class Prom might help stir up the spirit which we would not have without athletics. I am in favor of a $4 tax for publications and medical aid, or a tax at a lower figure for publications alone.

Eugene Underwood, Columbian—Interclass competition of any sort would increase college spirit. I think an upper class prom would be a good thing. There ought to be a $4 tax.

Russell Duval, Columbian—I think nothing can be decided until this fall as everything depends on conditions at that time.

Elmer W. Dieserud, Law—I am not only in favor of $4 tax but am in favor of the compulsory Hatchet. In a university where the departments are so scattered every student should have the Hatchet in order to keep in touch with student activities.

G. Vall Minnick, Medical—Since athletics will be discontinued next year I am in favor of a student tax of $4 to cover student publications and hospital aid.

Gertrude Walter, Teachers—I am in favor of the $4 tax.

The Hatchet has been unable to reach the representatives of the Veterinary College and the College of Pharmacy, so their views cannot be stated.

HISTORY ESSAYS NOW DUE

All essays to be submitted in competition for the various history prizes should be turned in immediately to the head of department of history. The names of the winners will be announced immediately before commencement.

The next and last issue of the Hatchet this year will appear on June 8, and will contain full accounts of the closing exercises of the University. The Hatchet staff is pleased that it has been able to run 30 issues this year instead of 28 as last year, thus cutting down the number of Hatchet-less weeks in the latter part of the year.

SHE'S FIRST "DRAUGHTSLADY"

Miss Marian Crist, Sophomore in Architecture, Enlists in Navy

One G. W. U. co-ed, Miss Marian Crist, a sophomore in architecture, has joined the navy as the first "draughtslady" of the Department.

When war was declared Miss Crist wanted to do her "bit" by working for the Government. Many of the architects obtained positions as draughtsmen in the Bureau of Yards and Docks. Miss Crist applied for a similar position.

"Sorry," said the Civil Service Commission, "We don't appoint women. Perhaps if you enlisted—"

So Miss Crist became a part of the Navy and is now the only girl draughtsman in a drawing room containing at least 100 men.

ARTILLERY AT TARGET PRACTICE LAST WEEK

Letter From Rifle Range Describes Camp Life

After a week of training at the Congress Heights rifle range, members of the Coast Artillery Company are again wearing "cits" and patiently waiting for a call to active service. Altho prophets said that the company would go to Fort Howard for big gun training this week, no orders were received.

In spite of the absence of those government employees who were recently discharged and the loss of newly commissioned officers, the university company of seventy-four men had a good time last week. This is what the company scribe wrote for the Hatchet while at the range Friday:

"The Coast Artillery Company reported at the First Street Armory early on the morning of May 7, and after loading trucks with tents, cots and other camp equipment, took the Congress Heights cars to within a mile of the camp.

"The camp site is located on a flat-topped, steep-sided hill overlooking the rifle range on the south. Our tents have wooden floors and are absolutely waterproof, so we are fully protected from the weather, a very vital point at this particular time. The frequent cold and rainy days have not prevented us from practice on the rifle range as we have heavy clothes and rubber ponchos. There has been no sickness of any kind in camp.

"We finished shooting the instruction course today; everyone found it great sport and some good shots were developed. The infantry course consists of slow fire, prone at 300, 500 and 600 yards then rapid fire, kneeling, at 200 yards and prone at 300 (Continued on page 2)

COUNCIL WILL SELECT PUBLICATION STAFFS

Cherry Tree and Hatchet Editors and Business Manager to be Selected—Candidates Should Apply

Editors and business managers of the Hatchet and Cherry Tree will be selected at the next meeting of the Student Council to be held on Tuesday, May 29, at the Law School.

The organization of the Hatchet will probably be changed by appointing an editor-in-chief, two associate editors and a business manager.

An editor and a business manager of the Cherry Tree will be selected.

Applicants with experience, other than those who have been doing work on the publications this year, who wish to be considered for either publication, should send their names to Z. Alvin Biggs, chairman of the Council publications committee, care of the Hatchet office, or see him personally. Suggestions and criticisms from the student body will also be welcomed, if received before the meeting.

The new Council will take office after commencement and will hold a meeting directly after the exercises on June 6.

DEAN FRASER GIVEN LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Will Teach At University of Minnesota Next Year

OTHER PROFESSORS GIVEN LEAVE

Professor King will Serve in Machine Gun Company—Professor Kern On Sick Leave

Are you superstitious? If you are, Dean Everett Fraser's leave of absence for a year to teach in the University of Minnesota Law School is a bad sign. Professor E. G. Lorenzen formerly of the G. W. U. Law School went out there to teach and is now at Yale. W. R. Vance, now Dean of the University of Minnesota Law School was Dean of the G. W. U. Law School prior to 1910. They did not come back. It is the sincere hope of the student body and the faculty that Dean Fraser will come back.

"I haven't done anything worth mentioning," he told a Hatchet reporter. But the loss which will be felt in the Law School because of his absence and the way that student activities will suffer without his enthusiastic support show that everything he did was worth mentioning.

Dean Fraser has been Dean of the Law School since 1914 and professor there since 1910. He received an L.L. B. degree at Harvard University (Continued on page 4)

COLUMBIAN DEFEATS ENGINEERS 10 TO 4

Retains Baseball Leadership; Last Game Tomorrow

Columbian College retained its lead in the interdepartmental baseball series by defeating the Engineers 10 to 4 last Saturday afternoon. The game was a much faster one than the score would indicate; it was run off in one hour and thirty-five minutes.

The work of the pitchers was excellent, Bixler striking out ten men and Huse eight. Five hits were obtained off Huse while Bixler allowed six. There was one two-bagger off each pitcher.

Biggs covered center field in a faultless fashion, cutting off several apparent hits. His long run over into right field for a difficult fly was probably the feature of the game.

The final contest of the season will be played between the same teams tomorrow afternoon on one of the ellipse diamonds. Medical was scheduled to meet Engineers, but the "doctors" are in the midst of final examinations.

Nine candidates for degrees of doctor of philosophy from George Washington University read their doctorate theses before the faculty of graduate studies Monday, May 14, at ten o'clock in the A. & S. Assembly Hall. All the candidates were passed and the degrees will be conferred at commencement time. This was the thirty-second doctorate disputation directed by the faculty of graduate studies.

Following is the list of the successful candidates:

Alfred Blumberg, William Dwight Pierce, Mary Jane Rathbun, Charles Elmer Resser, Louis George Connor, Leonard Lee Harter, Ruric Cregan Roark John William Roberts, Arthur William Sampson.

MANY JUNE FUNCTIONS

Former Ambassador Collier Will Address Class

BISHOP McDOWELL ON SUNDAY MAY 3

President Stockton Will Hold Reception—10th Anniversary at Teachers College—Fraternalities Plan Many Affairs

Two hundred and eighty students, who will receive their degrees at the 96th Annual Commencement exercises of the George Washington University on June 6th, will be entertained, during the week of June first, by President Stockton, by the Alumni Association, and by the various student organizations.

Graduation exercises and the conferring of degrees will take place in the Auditorium of the new Central High School, 13th and Clifton streets, June 6, at eight o'clock. Among those receiving degrees will be a member of the George Washington faculty, Charles Elmer Resser, upon whom will be conferred a Ph. D.

William Miller Collier—one time ambassador to Spain, and now lecturer on diplomacy at George Washington—will make the commencement address.

Each member of the Senior Class will receive four tickets, which will entitle him to seats which will be reserved until eight o'clock. They will also receive fifty engraved invitations. The tickets may be obtained May 23 at the general office, 2023 G street, or at the offices of the Law School, the Medical School, the National School of Pharmacy and the Veterinary School.

To prevent confusion no flowers or gifts of any kind will be received or delivered at the Central High School. Bishop McDowell will preach the baccalaureate sermon in the Foundry M. E. Church, corner of 16th and Church streets, on Sunday, June 3rd, at four o'clock. Members of the graduating classes will assemble in the Sunday School room of the church at 3:30 where gowns will be furnished. Caps and gowns are to be worn both at the commencement exercises and the baccalaureate service.

President Stockton's reception to the members of the senior class will be held at the Washington Club, Monday, June 4, from five until seven o'clock. He is also giving a luncheon in honor of the successful candidates for the degree of Ph. D. at the Cosmos Club on Tuesday, June 5.

The 10th anniversary of the founding of Teachers College will be celebrated by the senior class in the A. & S. Assembly Hall, Friday, June 1, at 8 o'clock. Prominent alumni of Teachers College will take part in the program. The committee on arrangements in conference with Dean Ruediger is Miss S. H. Gardner, Miss Dorothy Hellman, and Miss Mable Robey. The Alumni Reunion, to which members of the graduating classes are invited, will be held on the back yard campus at 2023 G street on June 5, from 3 to 5.

The Columbian Women are giving a senior reception on Saturday afternoon, June 2, at 2027 G street.

Besides the University functions many of the student organizations and most of the fraternities are holding smokers, dinners, dances, and luncheons during Commencement Week.

ORDER NEW CLASS PINS

Out of 280 graduates in the University this June, only 65 as yet have ordered the regulation class pin adopted by the Student Council. The pin committee, of which John S. Bixler is chairman, has requested all seniors who wish pins to hand in their names at once.

Seniors of Columbian College can arrange for pins with Miss Gertrude Fogarty, who will be in Miss Watkins' office, Monday, from 4:30 to 5:00 o'clock.

The Tax Question

How activities are to be supported next year is the most important question before the students at the present time.

The suspension of athletics has necessitated considering a readjustment
of the tax.

There are practically three plans
that have been suggested.

A $4 tax, adding semiannually $2
to bills of all students, except special,
and giving the same amount of medical and hospital treatment as this year, together with subscriptions to the Hatchet and the Cherry Tree.

A voluntary $5 tax, giving the benefits of the compulsory tax above.

A compulsory Hatchet fee of $1 to be added to the tuition of all students, abolishing any medical feature and letting the Cherry Tree operate on a single subscription basis.

The compulsory $4 tax should be adopted, if it is possible. A majority of the councilmen are in favor of it.
Many of the faculty favor it.

It would put both publications on a sound financial basis, which will be needed due to the ever increasing war costs of printing and paper. It will benefit the health of the signers, allowing them freedom in the use of a doctor's services.

If the Faculty Committee, the President's Council, and the Board of Trustees will not add the $4 compulsory tax to the tuition of each regular student, it is doubtful if an attempt can be made for even a voluntary $5 tax.
Without athletics, as an advertising feature, enough subscribers may not be obtained in spite of the bargain offered.

If the compulsory $4 tax is not approved, each regular student should have a dollar subscription added to his tuition, for the Hatchet. The Hatchet is the one regular bond between departments of the University, the one paper that every student should receive each week. It is the carrier of official as well as student messages;
it keeps alive student activities by advertising them. The old Council at a recent meeting voted for a compulsory Hatchet, and most of next year's Council favor it. It is to be hoped that the faculty and trustees act favorably upon it.

A compulsory tax is not a novelty in many colleges, where hospital fees giving less than our tax does, cost more than the entire proposed $4 compulsory tax.

Cherry Tree Distribution

The manner in which the Cherry Tree, recently off the press, has been distributed is deserving of criticism.
An absolute lack of method has been shown. No ample announcement has been made as to where the year books can be obtained or at what hours
students can be sure of getting them.
Many students come to the Hatchet office time after time only to be disappointed.

The Hatchet has offered to publish a schedule of distributing hours but the offer was not accepted.

Such disregard for the convenience of the students should not be shown.
It gives students a bad impression of the other benefits of the tax as well as the Cherry Tree.

Editorially the year book deserves praise, altho the printing is not what it should be.

The Hatchet wishes to state that altho the Cherry Tree occupies part of its office, the Hatchet has nothing to do with the distribution of the Cherry Tree, and regrets both the interruptions suffered by the Hatchet
staff and the inconvenience of the students. Which, by the way is an argument for separate offices for the two publications.

Instead of a decrease in attendance
next year, an increase may be expected at George Washington University, in spite of the fact that every college of the country is preparing for a large loss of students. The influx of government employees to Washington during the summer will undoubtedly bring many special students to the University next year.

Because Government employees will have to work longer hours than in peace times, and to accommodate the many new employees who will come next year the late afternoon classes
should be shifted from the present hours to the evening.

This will not only accommodate those who have to work but will allow many day students to aid the Government.

There is an athletic deficit of about $500 as the result of this year's football mismanagement. If we were to have athletics near year, it could probably be wiped off the slate then,
and this was a proposed method of disposing of it before war was declared. The debt should be paid, now.
To resume athletics after the war in the face of such a debt would be nearly impossible. It will be hard enough to get teams in running order again, even without such a handicap. How to pay that debt is now one of the most serious questions of activities.

Just because you have given your two bits to the Hatchet French War Orphan fund, don't think that you have done your bit.

Commencement

The fatal day has come upon me when The Hatchet goes to press for the last time.

The editor perchance demands a rhyme
A sonnet on commencement from my pen.
Should I, bidding farewell to maids and
men,

Dip deep my quill and write in words
sublime

What sorrow parting is? Oh no. 'Tis mine

To prophesy when we shall meet again.
The year's full calendar we now review,
Of pleasure, work, and here and there a class.

Some graduates rejoice at getting thru,
While others have regret. Be not downcast.

O Senior. The old but spells the new.
The worthwhile things you've gleaned will always last.

CAN'T PAY WAY TO PLAY

Invitations Only Admit to Humanistic
Play Tonight

At last there is something new under the sun. No matter how much money you have you will not be able to purchase admission to "The Importance of Being Earnest," which will be given by the class in Humanistics
in the A. & S. Assembly Hall, tonight.
Attendance is by invitation only as the play is "art for art's sake."

The play will be staged in a simple manner. The draperies used previously in the Hatchet vaudeville show will be the only setting.

There has been a shifting of the parts as some of the boys of the class have left for war service. The cast is as follows: Jack, Fenton Fadelley; Algernon, Heyward Siddons; Chasible,
Sterling March; Merrilan, G. S. Ellis;
Lane, Henry Fisher; Lady Bracknell,
Dorothy Dennett; Gwendoline, Eleanor Stanton; Cecily, Catherine Moran; Miss Prism, Katherine Lyons.

The members of the business staff
are: Lettie Stewart, invitations; refreshments—to be used in play—Loy-zelle Callahan; and Tully Garner, properties.

PROFESSOR KERN RECOVERING

Reported Out of Danger—Professor Maillet Back

Professor Kern, head of the Economics and Sociology department, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is out of danger and improving steadily. At first his condition was considered hopeless but he is very much better and is past the danger line. Professor Kern is still at Emergency Hospital and he greatly appreciates the flowers his students have sent him from time to time. He has hopes of being strong enough to resume his class work when summer school begins.

Professor Maillet, instructor in French conversation, has returned to his classes after two weeks' illness in Garfield Hospital.

CHERRY TREE REVIEW

The Cherry Tree is out in full bloom.
It came out a few blossoms at a time because of the cold weather but every eager student has found it worth waiting for. The editors hope that the fruit of the Cherry Tree may be an increased college spirit and a more unified George Washington University.

The general arrangement is very good. The dedication is to Dean Fraser because of his enthusiastic interest in student activities. Altho as a whole the pictures are good, no student has yet been found who will admit that his does his justice.

The write-ups for Teachers College and the Medical School are particularly clever and the illustrations by the art editor and his staff are noticeably attractive. Among the departments the athletic section, picturing the first year of football, has received the most favorable comment.

George Washington certainly didn't miss anything in his letters to Tom Jefferson which are quite amusing.
Then Percy had the nerve to 'fess up but it didn't take such an awful lot of nerve because most of us knew who
the clever man was anyhow.

The editor put a joke entitled "All in Vain" on the last page. It was not an appropriate finale, for his work
was not in vain but exceedingly successful.

180 COLLEGE HEADS CONFER

President Stockton at Meeting Addressed by Baker

Rear Admiral Stockton, President
of G. W. U., took part in a conference which 180 heads of universities and colleges had with Secretary of War
Baker, at Continental Hall on May 5.

Secretary Baker in an address said that while sacrifices must be made,
the War Department was anxious not to disturb college curricula unduly.
While stating that college men made exceptionally good officers he said that boys under age would perhaps do the country the greatest service
by staying in college.

A resolution was passed by the educators that the colleges should be kept up in spite of war conditions, if possible to do so. The question of graduation and credits for students in war service was also considered at some length.

Student Geologists Visit Harpers Ferry

The geology class trip to Harper's Ferry last Sunday, May 5, was a success after all, although everybody thought it was going to rain. They began to think so a week before the date set and kept it up until five thirty that morning, but the weather man relented.

Fortunate it is that eight o'clock excursion trains do not leave the station until twenty minutes after eight, otherwise a large percentage of geologists would have to stay at home and go to church.

There is a great deal of geology and history at Harpers Ferry if not much else. The crowd of forty, personally conducted by Dr. R. S. Bassler studied the rock formations and walked many miles in pursuit of both history and geology, but much farther in search of the luncheon place he recommended. It was always "just around the corner."

The luncheon hour resolved itself into a debate as to whether it is better to eat everything for lunch and go hungry for supper, or to be half hungry all day. After lunch eating, picture taking, and crawling thru barbed wire fences the crowd started on the backward hike over the hills to town. Storer College was visited and other historic points were explained by Miss Helen Miles.

The party ate supper (or what portion of lunch remained for that purpose), on Jefferson Rock above the Shenandoah River. At five they returned to the station where they amused themselves by riding on freight trucks, reading historic tablets and wishing for hot coffee, while they waited two hours for the train back to Washington.

PLAN G. W. AMBULANCE CORPS

Unit Will Do Hospital Work "Somewhere in France"

A chance to do detailed active service in France before fall is offered to G. W. U. men by the Inter-collegiate Intelligence Bureau, which is forming an ambulance corps composed of 36 men of the University. Salaries will range from $20 to $50 per month.

If enough G. W. U. men volunteer, the unit formed will bear the name of G. W. U. Hospital Unit and a special officer will be sent to enlist the men. They will then be under government orders and must be ready at any moment to go to Philadelphia where examination and mobilization will be completed. The camp site where the men will undergo training for a short time prior to going to France, has been selected.

Chemists Finish Year; Fogle Made President

The final meeting of the Chemical Society and the election of officers for next year took place at the Medical School on May 9.

Dean Munroe talked on the troubles of the Dean of Graduate Studies in obtaining men capable of examining the candidates for the higher degrees, of which there were ten this year. He also read a history of the professors of chemistry since the founding of the university in 1821, touching on their lives and important contributions to science.

The election of officers for 1917-18 resulted as follows: President, Fred M. Fogle; vice-president, George Scully; secretary, Wilbur A. Gersdorff; treasurer, William H. Tonkin; press representatives, Herbert H. Shinnick; executive committee, Miss Helen Miles, William L. F. Pahl and Joseph N. Stockett.

After the meeting the members had refreshments and a final get-together, with speeches by the various officers-elect.

Engineers Elect At Last Supper-Meeting

A picture was "hanged," how to heat a house by refrigeration was explained, officers were elected, and fair girl waitress' were lauded and thanked at the last 6:40 o'clock supper-meeting of the Engineering Society for this year held Monday, May 9.

Starting with a flow of "eats" designed to wipe out the last cent of the treasury as well as the hunger of the engineers, and ending with a flow of engineering knowledge, the meeting brought to close the first term's trial of the new scheme for the holding of the society meetings.

Just after the supper, President O. H. Miller presented Mrs. Robert W. Morse, wife of Professor Morse, and the girls who have been preparing the engineering suppers with a picture of Mount Vernon. While an expedition of very civil and consulting engineers accompanied several of the girls to the new rest rooms in 2027 G street where the picture was placed on the wall, a detail of sanitary engineers transported soiled dishes from A. & S. building to the sorority rooms across the street.

At the meeting the following were elected to superintend and design the building of the society for next year: President, Edwin A. Schmitt, civil; vice-president, O. H. Miller, civil; B. C. Cruickshanks, mechanical; Spencer B. Michael, electrical; treasurer, Jacob L. Lenovitz, civil; secretary, D. V. Stroop, civil; member of the executive committee, H. A. Ehrman, mechanical.

DEAN FRASER GIVEN

and a B. A. at Delhouse University, Halifax, Nova Scotia.

For two years he has been chairman of the faculty committee on student activities. He was organizer of the Student Council. The increased enthusiasm of the student body this year is in a large part the result of his unselfish and progressive spirit.

In regard to student activities for next year Dean Fraser said, "No, we can't do much without athletics. I am, however, in favor of a $4 tax. The tax this year was so successful that I think it would be a mistake to discontinue it in its second year. A $4 tax would cover student publications and medical aid. I do not believe that the students in general realize how large the number of students who took advantage of the medical assistance and hospital service has been."

Dean Fraser is going to teach in the University of California summer school this year and will go from there to the University of Minnesota.

His successor on the student activities committee has not been chosen and it is not known who will act as dean during his absence.

At the same meeting of the executive committee of the Board of Trustees on May 3, Professor William Bruce King, of the Law School, was granted a year's leave of absence in order that he may continue to serve, as second lieutenant, in the machine gun company of the Third Infantry, District National Guard.

The resignation of Alfred G. Burman as clerk of the Moot Court of the Law School was accepted to take effect at the end of the term.

Professor Robert Russ Kern was given a leave of absence for the rest of the term on account of illness. Professor Hill and Herman B. Chubb, A.B., have taken over Professor Kern's classes.

The chapter gave a house dance Saturday night, May 12. Representative and Mrs. Evans, of Montana; Dr. and Mrs. Van Meter, and Major Brooks, of the British Medical Service, were the guests of honor.

Messrs. Fitzpatrick, Brewer, Crockett, Craig, Marshall and Marston, Delta Kappa chapter, Delaware State, were in Washington Saturday and Sunday and visited the chapter.

Messrs. Romberger, Schmehl and Heist moved into the house the first of the month.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

Sigma Phi Epsilon held an informal dance at the chapter house, Saturday night, May 12.

Hunt received their commissions before leaving and Harold L. Brown, not so fortunate, will compete for his. Hunter and Brown were members of Troop A and saw service on the border. Hunt has been with the Coast Artillery Company.
